LYNCHBURG TOBACCO MARKET.
Lynchburg, Va., March 31, 1903.
Receipts of tobacco for the week of the city for the past week have been much heavier than had been expected. The sales aggregated 1,385,000 pounds. The prices were rather lower than they have been for some weeks. This was caused by the bad condition of the tobacco for much of it being in very poor order, hard and mouldy. Fine shipping wrappers are much sought after, and the bringing of such grades is increasing.

Lynchburg, Va., March 30, 1903

Sales of tobacco on the Lynchburg market for the two weeks ending March 28, 1903, as reported by Mr. John Oglesby of Lynch's Warehouse:

Sold week ending March 21st, 1,393,300 pounds; sold week ending March 28th, 806,500 pounds; decrease for week ending March 28th, 587,000 pounds. Sold from October 1, 1902, to March 22, 1903, 18,251,000 pounds; sold from October 1, 1901, to March 23, 1902, 16,441,900 pounds; increase for 1903, 1,809,100 pounds.

Receipts last week were much lighter than for the past few weeks. This was caused by the hot and damp weather.

which got the tobacco in very bad condition. Two-thirds of it at least was either in very soft order and hot or more or less mouldy. There was hardly a crop offered that was not damaged. This material reduced prices on all grades, except the wrappers, which was fully sustained. This caused the planters to stop bringing their tobacco to market, but put them reordering and putting their tobacco in better condition before offering it for sale. The bright tobacco condition was issued for Bell, and was created. It is alleged that he went to Atlantic City. On his return he was arrested.

According to Inspector McCluskey, the gambling has come to a full stop in New York. He says he has kept a lookout for all the gamblers in the city, and apparently they know it, as none of them is doing business at the present time.

one of the captious critics declare, that at the present moment there is no sound reason for regarding securities as sound. They ought not the character of these securities to be taken into consideration in a broad view of the situation of the country, and these securities sound or are they unsound? Do they represent value or do they not? These are the questions. "To my mind and in my judgment those new securities are sound and are in no wise alarmed because of their holding. Beyond all this there is no need to purchase of rolling stock and motive power, and for the extension of other lines, and the necessary movement of the products of the country. You will find that in due time this phenomenon will disappear, and these new securities will disappear."

Mr. Ellisha Jackson, a widely known very popular traveling merchant, Mr. Jackson was raised in Ashland, Ohio, and has been in the city of St. Louis for many years. He is survived by a number of brothers and sisters—Mrs. William, Hartwell, Julian, Shirley Frank M. Jackson, of Cairo, Ill.; Mary Baldwin, Mrs. James P. How and Miss Drema G. Jackson, of St. Louis.

Mr. Jackson's death was sudden. He was taken ill while traveling, but was presumably recovering, and had written his relatives in Cairo that he was to sit up. Soon after the actor was relieved a telegram came announcing death.

Two or three months ago he wrote to a friend asking him to look out for a

As for the general situation you may have emphasized emphatically to the fact that it is most promising, with the country so unqualifiedly prosperous. In the iron and steel trade, for example, the grower of the country's growth, stability and business activity—there never was so great a profitable business. Orders on hand are abundant and the outlook is decidedly encouraging.

"In short, summing the situation up, the country is prospering and prospering out the promises are of a continuation of that prosperity for a long time to come."
